THE BREVITY BASKET.

Filled With Brief Mention of Many Minor Events of Yesterday.Judge Wylie on Saturday discharged the grand jury for the term.Charles F. Bowman was fined $1 in the police court Saturday for assaulting Columbus W. Thompson.The argument in the case of Glenn trustee against Boney on demurrer, was resumed in the circuit court on Saturday as to Glenn's right to action.A building permit was issued on Saturday to William Corle to build two dwellings on Twenty-sixth street, between I and K streets northwest, to cost $1,700.W. B. Moran, convicted of breaking into the store of Adolph Hollander, was sentenced by Judge Wylie on Saturday to three years in the Albany penitentiary.Permits for ninety-six new buildings and sixty-three repairs, were granted by the building inspector during Feb. 1, an increase of twenty-eight buildings over February 1883.The grand jury on Saturday presented indictment against Thorton K. Richardson, embezzlement; George A. Adamson, forgery; Robert C. Kerstine, perjury, and Hugh O'Neil, embezzlement.A. A. Wilson, foreman of the grand jury, was presented on Saturday by his associates with a handsome engraved set of resolutions of respect, and C. B. Pearson, the secretary was given a similar present by his colleagues.The grand jury reported on Saturday that they had ignored the charges against Joseph Hart, for attempt to kill Frances Mulhall; Helen A. Lockwood for alleged pension fraud; N. W. and S. C. Fitzgerald for alleged pension fraud.At the last Friday evening reception of Miss Hanson, the artist, "The Minister," recited by Hon. H. L. Morey, M. C. of Ohio, and Shelley's poem, "The Clouds," by Mr. J.
H. Whitaker, of the patent office. Mr. Savage, of Boston, recited a poem of his own, entitled "The Plant of the Wild Flower in the City." The remaining recitations of the present session will be devoted to critical papers and discussions on leading poets, with the reading or recitations of selections from their works.HERBERT SPENCER says that a man's conversation is a sure index to his mental capacity; we therefore account for the numerous flattering commendations made by our most learned men of the merits of Dr. Bull's Cough Syrup.

The New York Republicans.

A large and enthusiastic meeting of the New York Republican association was held at German hall, 696 Eleventh street, Saturday evening. Several new members were elected, and a large amount of routine business was transacted. The president, Mr.
Andrews, announced his inability to appoint the standing committees for the current year in the absence of reliable information concerning the redistricting of the state. Said committees will be duly announced at the regular meeting in April. Resolutions on the retirement of Mr. A. M. Clapp as president of the association were presented and ordered to be suitably engrossed and forwarded to Mr. Clapp. A communication from the National Republican association, recently organized in this city, was read, and on motion the secretary was instructed to notify said organization that their invitation to send a delegate to represent the New York association in their executive committee was declined. Stirring addresses were made by Messrs. Clapp, Lake, Flint, Hills, and others, expressing confidence in the success of the party in the coming fall elections.
The association then adjourned to meet at German hall on the first Saturday in April.No CHARITIES have ever attained such a sudden popularity as the "Sweet Bouquet." The reason is found in their excellence and purity.

The Gay Head Disaster.

The trial by court martial of George Cantine and two other sailors of the United States steamer Spedwell, charged with robbing the dead from the wreck of the steamer City of Columbus, was resumed at the navy yard on Saturday. Robert F. Bradbury, paymas-ter's yeoman on the Spedwell, testified to seeing several bodies hauled in, but, although he saw Cantine leaning over one of the bodies, did not see him take anything. Witness had a conversation with Cantine a short time after this about how much he got, when the latter replied, "More than one." Cantine, later, asked witness if he (Cantine) went ashore would he be suspected, and witness replied, "Yes." He took a $5 bank note from Cantine to get him a pair of shoes, and it was damp. Witness then selected the note from among others handed him by the court.
The trial will be resumed to-day.

The Mississippi Republicans.

sissippi Republican association was held Saturday evening at Timms's hall, and was
